SAVE THE DATE: JANUARY 28TH, 6:00 PM

Ulah Bistro, 1214 U. Street NW

Washington, DC 20009 (Across from Ben's Chili Bowl)

Join us as we kick off the New Year and hit the literary ground running in 2010! We'll meet at the swanky Ulah Bistro where you'll have the chance to meet a host of diverse literary players from around the Washington DC metro area including: authors, publicists, publishers, graphic artists and more! Be a part of the movement to unify the DC Black literary community.

Sign up on our new Facebook Fan Page at Black Book Coalition to stay abreast of events, publishing news, and connect with other publishing/creative professionals attending the event.

The Black Book Coalition was founded by MahoganyBooks in conjunction with The Renaissance Group, LLC, and The Hurston/Wright Foundation. Our mission is "to achieve success and value for our literary community through the combined talents and expertise of area book professionals."
